Kansas Military Base Strips

Note regarding “McConnell” strip: ISCA Journal states this strip is a military base strip: "As can be seen from the photo, the McCONNELL (AFB) 1/2RW came with a state strip and confirms the location as being in KS, which is where the base is located." There is no civilian McConnell, KS. The only “McConnell” populated place listed in the Geographic Names Information System is McConnell, WV, population 514 (2010 Census).

Note: Salina Municipal Airport near Salina, Kansas was previously used as an Air Force Base under the following names:

- Smoky Hill Air Force Base, 1948–1949; 1951–1957
- Schilling Air Force Base, 1957–1965

To date, military base strips have not been confirmed for these names. If you have any information about Scout units active at this location during these times, please contact Kory Lewis at the email address below.
